Wild Connections Presentation

Tuesday, April 14th, 7 p.m.

Come hear about the newest restoration program and other activities of Wild Connections.

Lions, Tigers and Ferrets!

Tuesday, May 12th, 7 p.m.

Della Garelle, DVM, Director of Conservation & Animal Health at the Cheyenne Mountain Zoo will present a program on the Zoo's role in the conservation of an endangered Colorado native, the Black-footed Ferret (BFF). Come find out about the exciting progress being made to bring this species back from the brink of extinction with a founding population of just seven (7) individuals. Learn how you can get involved in ensuring their future on America's short grass prairie. Dr. Garelle has served as the Coordinator for the BFF's international Species Survival Plan since 1996. The Cheyenne Mountain Zoo has bred and released BFFs back to the wild since 1990.

CHUCK PYLE TO PERFORM WILD LAND BENEFIT CONCERT JUNE 27

Nationally-known singer, songwriter, and recording artist Chuck Pyle will present a concert to benefit the public land protection work of the CCWC and Wild Connections. Both groups are partners in conservation of Pikes Peak Sierra Club. The event will be held on Saturday, June 27 at 7 pm at All Souls Unitarian Church, 730 N. Tejon St, Colorado Springs 80903. Admission is $15 and tickets are available at the door.

Chuck Pyle, nicknamed the Zen Cowboy, lives in Palmer Lake and performs nationwide, especially in the West. He has been recorded by Willie Nelson, John Denver, Jerry Jeff Walker, and many more. His latest CD, Higher Ground: Songs of Colorado, and others will be available at the concert. Local storyteller and balladeer John Stansfield will open. For more info, contact John Stansfield, 303-660-5849; jorcstan@juno.com
